Notification of Non-Entitlement of Small Entity Status and Request to Have Payment of Deficiency In Filing Fee Accepted

Hon. Asst. Commissioner of Patents
Washington, DC 20231

October 12, 2001

Sir:

The above-identified application was filed with the United States Designated/Elected Office, on June 25, 2001 with a claim for small entity status. The purpose of this letter is to notify the USPTO that this was an inadvertent clerical error and that this application is not entitled to claim small entity status. The fees that were erroneously paid as small entity fees is the filing fee ($470.00 paid on June 25, 2001). See the attached copy of the stamped return postcard and counsel's check no. 2099 on June 25, 2001. The amount of the deficiency is $500.00

The current PCT National Stage filing fee for a non-small entity is $890.00.

The difference between the amount paid as a small entity, including the additional claim fee and the current fees is $500.00. In order to make up the deficiency, a check in the amount of $500.00 is submitted herewith and the undersigned respectfully requests its acceptance by the USPTO.

Further, please charge any deficiency and any other fee due in connection with this notification and request to our deposit account no. 04-0100, or credit to it any excess paid herewith.

Respectfully submitted,
